An entrepreneur, philanthropist, and veteran of the United States Army, Mr. Viola is a Brooklyn, N.Y. native and graduate of both the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and New York Law School. Mr. Viola is also Co-Founder and Chairman Emeritus of Virtu Financial, one of the nation's foremost providers of financial technology products and services, and former Chairman of the New York Mercantile Exchange (2001-2004).

Since his purchase of the Florida Panthers franchise in 2013, Mr. Viola's leadership, investments in the local community and dedication to growing the game of hockey in the State of Florida have not only transformed the team's on-ice performance—leading to a 2021-22 Presidents' Trophy win and a 2022-23 Prince of Wales Trophy—it helped to expand interest in the sport across the Sunshine State while making a positive impact in the lives of South Floridians.

Under Mr. Viola's stewardship, the Florida Panthers Foundation has refocused its mission on serving veterans, in addition to investing in children's education, conserving the endangered Florida panther, and growing youth hockey with an emphasis on furthering diversity, inclusion, and access to the game. Since then, the Foundation has provided free educational programming for hundreds of local public schools and continues to serve the community through ongoing outreach programs, crisis relief efforts, grant programs, and partnerships with local 501c3 organizations.

Mr. Viola, who was recognized in 2021 by Sports Business Journal for his advocacy in diverse and inclusive hiring, is one of four team owners on the NHL's Executive Inclusion Council to combat racism and accelerate diversity. Under his leadership, the Panthers have continued to further these efforts both on and off the ice, including the revitalization of Fort Lauderdale's historic War Memorial Auditorium and construction of a two-sheet team practice and community ice facility-the Baptist Health IcePlex-which will host an array of community hockey and skating programs and increase access to the sport of hockey to thousands of tri-county residents.

A graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne, Air Assault, Infantry, and Ranger Schools, Mr. Viola served as an infantry officer in the 101st Airborne Division, and his dedication to the U.S. military additionally led to his creation of the Florida Panthers' Heroes Among Us program, which has honored hundreds of veterans, and counting, since its inception in 2013.

As Chairman of the New York Mercantile Exchange (NYMEX) from 2001-2004, Mr. Viola's decisive leadership, guidance, and untiring efforts were credited with leading NYMEX's reopening following the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001. A U.S. Army veteran and former Vice President at Goldman Sachs, Caldwell first joined the Panthers as Chief Operating Officer in 2014. Just two years later, at age 36, Caldwell assumed the role of President & Chief Executive Officer, making him the youngest CEO in all of U.S. professional sports at the time.

Over the past several years, Caldwell's strategic efforts have played a pivotal role in the rebirth of the Florida Panthers-from building a front office team that continues to set franchise records in ticket sales, TV viewership, and sponsorship revenue, to onboarding Florida Panthers General Manager Bill Zito in 2020, whose transformational work led the team to its first Presidents' Trophy for most points in the 2021-22 regular season.

Under Caldwell's leadership, the Panthers have also placed a heightened emphasis on advancing diversity, inclusion, and access, both within the sport of hockey and the community beyond.

As an extension of this mission, Caldwell has played an instrumental role in the Panthers revitalization of Fort Lauderdale's iconic War Memorial Auditorium and construction of a new two-sheet team practice and community ice facility-the Baptist Health IcePlex-which will host an array of community hockey and skating programs and increase access to the sport to thousands of tri-county residents.

BILL ZITO

PRESIDENT, HOCKEY OPS. & GENERAL MANAGER, ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Bill Zito was named General Manager of the Florida Panthers on September 2, 2020. He was promoted to President, Hockey Operations and General Manager on Aprl 15, 2024.

He is responsible for the club's hockey operations, including all matters relating to player personnel, scouting and minor league operations.

Zito overhauled the Panthers roster in his first season at the helm, quickly transforming the Cats into one of the most dynamic and exciting teams in the National Hockey League. In 2020-21, the Panthers set franchise records for points percentage (.705), goals per game (3.36) and shots on goal per game (34.9) en route to a second-place finish in the Central Division standings and a berth in the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

In 2021-22, the Panthers stayed atop the NHL standings for much of the campaign to earn the club's third division title and first Presidents' Trophy. The Panthers once again set club marks in points percentage (.744), goals per game (4.11) and shots on goal per game (37.3), earning a franchise-best 58 wins and 122 points, which marked the fourth-most points by a team in League history. The 2021-22 Cats were the first team since 1995-96 to average over four goals per game, and their 337 goals were the most of any club over that span. The Panthers combined 95-32-11 regular season record tied for the best mark of any club over that span, as well. Between Zito's first two seasons, the club boasted a league-leading 525 goals and paced all clubs with an average 3.80 goals per game and 36.3 shots on goal per game. Florida's 0.7283 points percentage under Zito's first two seasons at the helm is the highest points percentage through the first two seasons of any general manager in NHL history among those who started a season with a club in that position.

Improving every season under Zito's leadership, the Panthers 2022-23 season was highlighted by the hiring of veteran Head Coach Paul Maurice, the blockbuster acquisition of Matthew Tkachuk, an Eastern Conference Championship and the franchise's first-ever win in the Stanley Cup Final. The Panthers clawed their way into the 2023 playoffs as an eighth-seed, finishing the season with 43 fewer points than their Round 1 opponent—the League's all-time winningest regular season Boston Bruins—and defeating them in seven games. The Panthers became the second-ever team to overcome a 3-1 series deficit to defeat the Presidents' Trophy winner in any round, the eighth team to defeat the Presidents' Trophy winner in the opening round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs, and the third to do so via a Game 7 victory. After eliminating the Bruins, the Cats went on a rampage of eight wins in nine games, defeating the Toronto Maple Leafs in five games and sweeping the regular season's second-best team, the Carolina Hurricanes, punching their ticket to the franchise's second Stanley Cup Final appearance.

Off the ice, Zito established a first-of-its kind Goaltending Excellence Department, focused on a comprehensive, integrated experience and program for all goalies in the Panthers system and headed by Hockey Hall of Famer and Special Advisor to the GM, Roberto Luongo.

Prior to joining the Panthers, Zito spent seven seasons with the Columbus Blue Jackets organization (2013-14 to 2019-2020), serving as assistant general manager for six seasons before his promotion in 2019 to vice president of hockey operations, associate general manager and alternate governor. In 2015-16, Zito was named general manager for Columbus' American Hockey League affiliate, the Cleveland Monsters (then Lake Erie Monsters).

During Zito's first season with the Monsters, the club posted a franchise-record 97 points in the regular season and won its first-ever Calder Cup Championship. The Monsters produced a 15-2 record in the 2016 Calder Cup Playoffs, the best record for a team in four rounds in AHL history.

On the international stage, the Milwaukee, Wisc., native served as general manager for Team USA at the 2018 IIHF World Championship, capturing a bronze medal and posting a 6-2-0-2 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record, tied for the best-ever by a U.S. team in tournament play. Zito also served as a member of the management team for the United States at the 2015 IIHF World Championship, winning a bronze medal.

Prior to his career as an NHL executive, Zito founded and built Acme World Sports in 1995, building it into a world-renowned talent agency for hockey players. He represented Vezina Trophy winners Tim Thomas and Tuukka Rask, Vezina Trophy finalist Antii Niemi, Selke Trophy winner John Madden and All-Stars Kimmo Timonen and Brian Rafalski. Zito graduated from Yale University in 1987, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history. While at Yale, he played three seasons for the Bulldogs Division I men's ice hockey team. Following his graduation, Zito played one season of professional hockey in Europe before returning home to Wisconsin, where he attended law school at the University of Wisconsin-Madison from 1990-93. There he served as a graduate assistant and assistant coach for the Badgers hockey team as well as a radio color commentator until he graduated with his JD degree in 1993.

While attending high school in Milwaukee, Zito served as bat boy for the 1981 and 1982 Milwaukee Brewers under legendary general manager Harry Dalton, who encouraged Zito to one day pursue a career in management. In 1982, the Brewers owned the best record in Major League Baseball and won the American League pennant before falling to the St. Louis Cardinals in seven games in the 1982 World Series.

Maurice is also one of three coaches to earn at least 300 wins with two different franchises.

Prior to his NHL head coaching career, Maurice spent two seasons (1993-94 to 1994-95) as head coach of the Detroit Jr. Red Wings of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL), culminating in an OHL championship in 1994-95.

Selected by the Philadelphia Flyers in the 12th round (252nd overall) of the 1985 NHL Draft, Maurice played four seasons with the Windsor Spitfires of the Ontario Hockey League from 1984-85 to 1987-88.

STANLEY CUP® PLAYOFFS

PLAYOFF RECORDS

2024 ROUND 1 NOTES VS. TAMPA BAY

The Panthers will open the postseason on home ice after securing the Atlantic Division Title, marking Florida's fourth division title (2011-12, 2015-16, 2021-22).

The Panthers or Lightning have represented the Eastern Conference in the Stanley Cup Final in each of the past four seasons. The last team outside of the Atlantic Division to represent the East in the Cup Final was Washington in 2018.

The Panthers will look to become the fourth different team in the last 20 years to make the Stanley Cup Final in consecutive seasons. The others include the Lightning (3 from 2020-22), Penguins (2 from 2008 – 2009 & 2016 – 2017) and the Red Wings (2008 – 2009).

The Panthers and Lightning have squared off 157 times in regular season history, with Florida posting a 77-51-10-19 record. Entering the National Hockey League in 1992 and 1993 respectively, both franchises recently celebrated their 30th Anniversary seasons.

The Cats downed the Bolts in two of their three regular season matchups (2-1-0) in 2023-24, outscoring their cross-state rival 15-9 in the season series. Matthew Tkachuk led Florida with six points (3-3-6) against Tampa Bay this season, while Sam Reinhart amassed a team-high four goals (4-1-5). Seven different Panthers totaled at least three points against the Lightning in 2023-24.

Both teams won the games played away from their home ice – Florida won its two contests in Tampa, while the Lightning earned the win at Amerant Bank Arena.

After going 7-0 in overtimes during the 2023 postseason, Florida enters the 2024 playoffs having won each of their last 10 playoff games that have gone to the extra frames, beginning with Ryan Lomberg's Game 3 winner at Amalie Arena in 2021. That stretch is the second-longest multi-season OT win streak in NHL history behind only MTL (14) from 1993-1998.

In the Bill Zito era (since 2020-21), the Panthers own an 11-5-3 record against Tampa Bay -- including 6-2-2 at Amalie Arena -- outscoring the Bolts 79-57.

Sergei Bobrovsky started all three games vs. Tampa Bay this season, posting above a .930 SV% in two of the three starts (.933 on Feb. 17 at TBL, .931 at TBL on Dec. 27).

Aleksander Barkov has amassed 37 points (7-30-37) in 44 regular season contests against the Lightning.

Panthers forward Carter Verhaeghe won the 2020 Stanley Cup with the Lightning. Verhaeghe played 52 games for Tampa Bay over the course of the 2019-2020 season.

Tampa Bay forward Anthony Duclair skated in three seasons (2020-21 to 2022-23) in South Florida, amassing 99 points (43-56-99) over 137 regular season games and helped the club capture the 2021-22 Presidents' Trophy and 2022-23 Prince of Wales Trophy.

Sam Bennett and Matthew Tkachuk (2-2-4 each) both logged four points against the Lightning in Florida's 9-2 win at Amalie Arena on Feb. 17, 2024. Tkachuk's two goals in the opening 1:37 of the second period were the fastest two goals by a skater from the start of a period in franchise history. The win marked the most goals scored in a road game in franchise history, and extended Florida's club-record road winning streak to 11 games, one shy of the all-time NHL record (12 games: Detroit in 2005-06 and Minnesota in 2014-15).

Florida's visit to Tampa Bay on Dec. 27 marked Head Coach Paul Maurice's 1800th game as NHL head coach.

The Cats have won each of their last three regular season games at Amalie Arena and have earned at least a point in six of their last seven visits to Tampa Bay (5-1-1).
